Of Redstone Presbytery

“The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the Lord your God.”

Exodus 23:19

Redstone churches have dramatically changed the way they respond to God’s generosity in funding the presbytery budget. Instead of paying a “per capita” or flat rate for each member, congregations instead contribute to the common work of the presbytery according to the gifts they have received. This new tithing program, called FirstFruits, mirrors the Biblical practice of giving :

- A firstfruits offering means THANKS. It is a tithe given in profound gratitude to God out of the abundance God showers on us.
- Firstfruits means FIRST. In Scripture, oil for lamps, wood for fires, flour for daily bread were paid for out of what was left AFTER the first-fruits offering.
- Firstfruits means BEST. It was not to be grudging gift, the leftovers from the field, the gleanings after harvest, let alone the barely usable roots and stems and leaves of an otherwise fruitful plant.

All that we have is God’s. Through grace, God has blessed us so that we may be a blessing.
